Company Profile SHE DE VIE Background

Show Plus (Hong Kong) Investment Limited ("Show Plus") is a dynamic entertainment company, complemented by a wealth of international production experience.

Our strong team, based in Hong Kong, is dedicated to curating high-quality entertainment performances from around the globe, drawing inspiration from previous successful projects.

Company Pro Current Situation

Despite the post-pandemic economic challenges, Show Plus remains optimistic about Hong Kong's potential.

avalia

After careful consideration, we have strategically chosen Hong Kong over Singapore for major investments, including the groundbreaking "Just Live" project and the highly acclaimed equestrian dance performance, "Cavalia," which is set for a triumphant return.

Company Profile SHEEVIE Strategic Goals

Over the last two years, we aim to build a robust team in Hong Kong, enriched by over 20 years of stage production experience. Our goal is to establish "Just Live" as a cornerstone project for our company.

Should this initiative prove successful, we plan to introduce "Cavalia" to the Hong Kong audience. We aspire to attract international tourists and visitors from the Greater Bay Area to Hong Kong, transforming "Just Live" into a signature festival that showcases the unique cultural identity of the region.

By leveraging our established domestic networks, we intend to create a vibrant tourism event that resonates with both locals and visitors.

Company Profile

Community Engagement through Education and Culture This initiative prioritizes local educational and cultural development in Hong Kong. We've partnered with a consulting firm to integrate educational content into our promotional activities, reaching 1,200 primary and secondary schools and kindergartens.

To enhance outreach, we'll send magicians to perform at schools, providing engaging experiences that educate students about the arts. We will also develop educational materials that support school curricula. By collaborating with educators and cultural institutions, we aim to nurture the next generation of performers and arts enthusiasts, ensuring our events contribute meaningfully to Hong Kong's cultural and educational landscape.

Company Profile SIE Empowering Youth through Employment and Entrepreneurship

"Just Live" also aims to create job opportunities for young people in Hong Kong and provide new business prospects for startups. We expect significant demand for manpower in event management, logistics, and customer service.

Additionally, we will establish market and dining areas, inviting local food vendors and artisans to foster a vibrant marketplace. Collaborating with local businesses, we will promote innovation and entrepreneurship through mentorship programs and workshops.

These initiatives will enhance the event experience while contributing to the local economy and empowering Hong Kong's youth.

Company Profile SHEEVIC-Community Commitment through Arts and Inclusivity

In terms of community development, "Just Live" is committed to making a positive impact. We have reached out to charities focused on stage and youth education to donate 3% of ticket sales for community and charitable purposes.

We aim to invite volunteers, individuals with disabilities, and underprivileged families to experience the joy of our events. Additionally, we plan to offer special workshops and behindthe-scenes access to these groups, allowing them to engage more deeply with the arts.

By fostering inclusivity and support for underrepresented communities, we hope to create a memorable experience that enriches the lives of all participants and strengthens community ties.

Main Creator Introduction

The renowned grand illusion producer & director

credited with integrating high technology into large-scale magic performances, has been dubbed "the Edison of the magic world" by the Associated Press; CNN has called him "the greatest illusionist of our time," and his performances have been described as "one of the largest-scale magical spectacles in the world"; The New York Times has commented: "In Asia, Franz Harary has become a star in his own right." With his unique talent and creativity, he has won countless fans around the globe who adore his work.

The Legendary Life of a Grand Illusionist

Throughout his illustrious career spanning over three decades, Franz Harary has used his unique psychological illusion skills to simplify the complex, making massive mechanical devices vanish in an instant. His productions effortlessly transport skyscrapers, flying airplanes, and even magnificent landmarks beyond the reach of the audience's sight, as if building a bridge between reality and dreams. For him, magic is not just a performing art; it is a profound artistic life.

Michael Jackson, after accidentally watching a performance video of Franz, was amazed by his extraordinary artistry and commercial potential, and immediately decided to collaborate with the then 21-year-old genius. The spark between the two dazzling superstars ignited the passion and anticipation of countless audiences. Franz levitated Jackson in the center of the stage, walking his iconic moonwalk, and then impaled his body with 50 javelins, creating one mysterious and stunning moment after another, bringing the globally acclaimed "Historical" tour to its brilliant peak. After that, more superstars were "dominated" by Franz's illusions. His name became associated with the likes of Madonna, Justin Bieber, Janet Jackson, and Aerith Gainsborough, among many top-tier celebrities. Moreover, Franz Harary has collaborated with entertainment giants such as Disney, Universal Studios, Steven Spielberg's studio, and MGM, integrating his astonishing illusions into classic entertainment projects, continuing to write his own legendary story.
